

SmartTV services are operated and maintained by authorized third parties

To deliver the basic Smart TV services to you, we are working with several internal and external suppliers. A list of the external suppliers can be found here:

Philips	https://www.philips.com
IBM	https://www.ibm.com
ZEASN	https://www.zeasn.com
Amazon	https://www.amazon.com

The Smart TV services on the Philips and AOC TVs are using the following domains to operate the services:

zeasn.tv, nettv.corio.com, nettvservices.com.
